

Congratulations to Jonathan Zacharowicz, who competed in the 2015 Kryptos Challenge Contest. This year, the cryptography contest had 67 teams from around the USA participating, and most teams consisted of 3 undergraduate students. Although Jonathan participated as a team of 1, he finished with a rating of "Pretty Good".