

ASPECTS OF TEICHMUELLER THEORY

April 12-14, 2007

Room B844 East Hall
University of Michigan
Ann Arbor, MI

Registration

Schedule

Lodging

Maps/Directions

Ann Arbor Information

University of Michigan

Mathematics Department

Organizers

Dick Canary

Zeno Huang

Lizhen Ji

Ralf Spatzier

For website problems,
contact webmaster

This workshop provides an introduction to Teichmueller space and its geometry via lecture series by the speakers below.

Speakers

- Nikolai Ivanov, Michigan State University
- Feng Luo, Rutgers University
- Michael Wolf, Rice University
- Scott Wolpert, University of Maryland

Funding

Limited funding is available for graduate students and post-docs. Please contact an organizer.

Register for the Workshop!

Sponsors

Sponsored by the National Science Foundation via our RTG grant in Geometry, Topology and Dynamics, and the FRG Geometric Function Theory.

Also supported by the Department of Mathematics at the University of Michigan.

Department of Mathematics | 2074 East Hall | 530 Church Street
Ann Arbor, MI 48109-1043
Phone: 734.764-0335 | Fax: 734.763-0937